

The World Is Suffering
By Derek Meincke

Day in day out
Never out and about
Nothing but heartbreak, fear and doubt

Never ending tears
Unseeable emotions from my peers
Will this go on for years?

Unable to breathe
Nose and mouth beneath
May or may not have any teeth

Lands becoming brown
All towns now ghost town
How long will we be shut down?
