

HOW I SPENT MY FIRST MONTH WITH NO OUTSIDE CONTACT

March/April 2020

THE COVID COLLECTION

MARCH 22, 2020

As boredom set in, I found projects to pass the time such as this pair of shoes that I refurbished to be grey camo

MARCH 26, 2020

Puzzles took up plenty of time for so many people that the price of them skyrocketed and many sold out quickly (we finished on March 30th)

MARCH 27, 2020

Mankato, Minnesota weather started looking up early for us that year so we spent most days outside with campfires and music!

FRIDAY

We experimented with new recipes and food

MARCH 29, 2020

MARCH 31, 2020

Some more arts and crafts for room renovations

APRIL 1, 2020

Added the finished product to my wall

APRIL 3, 2020

I had to document my snacks of course

APRIL 5, 2020

More cooking with my family

APRIL 12, 2020

Had an Easter egg hunt and dyed
Easter eggs at home

We chose to keep to our immediate family to keep ourselves and them safe which was the first time we've spent Easter alone since I've been born.

APRIL 16, 2020

I made ceviche for the first time, originating from Peru!

LOVED IT SO MUCH I HAD TO MAKE IT AGAIN-
APRIL 21

AND PUT IT INTO TORTILLAS!

APRIL 22

APRIL 19, 2020

Spring cleaning- Took all the old garbage and clothes out of my car from the past few months

Not that anyone would be in my car for awhile...

APRIL 22, 2020 THE END OF THE FIRST MONTH

Although it went on for longer, this series ends on Earth Day!

Celebrated with a campfire, smores, and golf cart rides that led us to a cute puppy
